

JFS presents an

IEP Clinic

An opportunity to seek advice from a Special Needs Advocate

Sunday, November 9, 2014

Appointments between 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

JFS 475 Franklin Street, Framingham

Co-hosted by Reva Tankle, Ph.D., Pediatric/Adolescent Neuropsychologist and Allison Kates, M.Ed., CAGS, School Psychologist with Special Needs Advocates, Kathy Bach, Susan Haberman, M.Ed., and Andrea Wizer, M.Ed

Registration is required for a free individual 50 minute consultation with a Special Needs Advocate

Call Nancy Fried-Tanzer at 508-875-3100 x330 by November 3rd.

This program is for you if you:

- Want advice on the appropriateness of a proposed or current IEP
- Want help to understand school or private testing results

This program is made possible with support from the Julia Michelson Fund,

Enabling children with special educational needs to become successful participants in the Jewish community

